Head Coach Rich Wieligman

Lubbock Christian '85

198-142 • Seventh season at Oklahoma State

Four NCAA Tournament Appearances

2011 Knoxville Regional Champions

2011 Stillwater Super Regional Champions

2011 Women's College World Series Appearance

In just a short five seasons, head coach Rich Wieligman returned Oklahoma State Cowgirl Softball back to elite status, leading OSU to its seventh Women's College World Series appearance in 2011. It is the defining moment in an impressive coaching career.

Entering his seventh season as the head softball coach at Oklahoma State University, now that he has returned the Cowgirl program to national prominence, Wieligman wants to maintain the status quo.

In 2011, Wieligman led the Cowgirls to the NCAA Tournament for the third-consecutive season, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1998 when OSU appeared in its 11th-straight NCAA Tournament. Oklahoma State went 40-22 and swept through the Knoxville Regional of the NCAA Tournament. After winning the Stillwater Super Regional two games to one over Houston, it was on to OKC. OSU finished eighth in both the NFCA Coaches poll and the USA Softball poll.

In 2010, the Cowgirls also achieved a 40-win season for the first time since '98. With its 44-16 record, Oklahoma State recorded its best season since 1994. Included in OSU's wins that year were two victories over 11th-ranked Oklahoma and a pair of wins over No. 4 Missouri in Columbia.

When Oklahoma State moved into the top 25 of the NFCA Coaches Poll during the first week of March of 2010, it was the first time OSU had been ranked in seven seasons. The Cowgirls were ranked as high as No. 7 in late April, OSU's highest ranking since a No. 4 national ranking in March of 1998.

In 2009, Wieligman returned the Cowgirls to the NCAA Tournament, a goal that OSU had achieved just twice since its Women's College World Series appearance in 1998. Oklahoma State advanced to the regional finals in Tallahassee, defeating 16th-ranked Florida State twice on their home field.

During the 2008 slate, the Cowgirls went 4-4 against ranked teams, including a 6-5 win over No. 4 Texas A&M late in the season. OSU swept 18th-ranked Baylor and also defeated No. 15 Washington.

Despite a losing record in his first year at the helm of the Cowgirls, Wieligman showed glimpses of what has already become commonplace at OSU under his direction. In just his ninth game as a head coach, the Cowgirls handed ninth-ranked UCLA an 8-1 loss at the Louisville Slugger Desert Classic in Las Vegas.

In all, 15 of OSU's 33 losses in his inaugural season were to teams ranked in the top 16 of the national polls.

Wieligman came to Oklahoma State after serving the previous four seasons as the hitting coordinator under Jo Evans at Texas A&M.

He spent a great deal of time in the Big 12's South Division, having also served as an assistant coach at Baylor and Texas Tech, but he really made a name for himself in College Station. His success with the Aggie softball program put his name at the top of the OSU coaching search, and after a conversation with Mike Candrea, the head coach for the Arizona Wildcats and the USA National Team, OSU athletic director Mike Holder knew who the next softball coach would be at Oklahoma State.

In Wieligman's first season at A&M in 2003, the Aggies slugged a school-record 55 home runs. He helped guide the Aggies to a .336 team batting average — tops in the country — in 2005. The Aggies went 47-10 during that season and were eliminated in the Super Regionals, a round shy of qualifying for the Women's College World Series.

Wieligman had a successful playing career, first in professional baseball and then fastpitch softball. He signed with the Philadelphia Phillies as an undrafted free agent in 1985. The Kansas City, Mo., native reached as high as the Triple-A level in the Detroit Tigers organization.

Prior to his stint in the professional ranks, Wieligman was a successful collegiate player, garnering All-America status at Lubbock Christian in 1984. This came a year after he helped lead the Chaparrals to the NAIA National Championship in 1983.

Wieligman spent a year playing professionally in Japan, but quickly returned to the United States where he decided to pursue coaching. His coaching career began where his collegiate career ended, at Lubbock Christian. The Chaparrals reached the NAIA World Series in 1991, but Wieligman still had a desire to compete and turned to fastpitch softball.

He joined DR Engine based out of Odessa, Texas, and he was an instant star. DR Engine won national championships in 1995 and 1997, with Wieligman being named the MVP of the 1995 ASA National Tournament. He also earned ASA All-America status in 1997.

With his experience in both baseball and softball, Paula Young hired Wieligman at Baylor in 1999, where he served two years as an assistant coach. The Lady Bears went 57-55 in those two seasons before he returned to Lubbock.

Bobby Reeves brought Wieligman to Texas Tech for the 2001 season. The Red Raiders went 37-24 in his first season at the school and were selected for an NCAA regional.

He spent a second season at Tech before leaving for his third Big 12 destination at Texas A&M.

It was at Texas A&M where Wieligman began to surface as a coaching commodity. The Aggies had a winning record all four seasons he was there, and the Aggie offense set several school records under his guidance.

Wieligman was hired at Oklahoma State on June 16, 2006. He received his bachelor's degree in education business/physical education from Lubbock Christian in 1985.

Wieligman was born on Oct. 21, 1962. He is married to the former Jill Hodge. The couple has two children: a daughter, Ashby, a junior at Texas Tech; and a son, Ryan, a sophomore at Stillwater High.

Assistant Coach Kelsi Dunne

Alabama '10

First season at Oklahoma State

Four-time NFCA All-American

Four-time Regional Champions

Three-time Super Regional Champions

Three Women's College World Series Appearances (2008, 2009, 2011)

Kelsi Dunne enters her first season as an assistant coach for the Oklahoma State softball team. Serving as the pitching coach, she is responsible for the development of the Cowgirl pitchers and catchers, as well as implementing a game plan for the opposing teams' hitters and calling pitches during the games.

Dunne comes to OSU after a one-year stint as a volunteer assistant coach for the Mississippi State Bulldogs. As the volunteer assistant for head coach Vann Stuedeman, Dunne developed workouts for the pitchers as well as overseeing all practice sessions. She was the community-service coordinator, travel planner and schedule coordinator for the Bulldog softball program, and also served as director of camps and clinics.

An All-American pitcher at Alabama, Dunne led the Crimson Tide to three Women's College World Series appearances in a four-year span. Alabama won four Southeastern Conference Western Division titles, four NCAA regional championships, three NCAA super-regional titles and two SEC Championships during her time on the pitching staff.

A four-time NFCA All-American, Dunne was also a top-25 finalist for USA Softball national Player of the Year all four seasons and was a top-10 finalist in 2009 and '11. Dunne was also a four-time first-team All-SEC pitcher and the SEC Pitcher of the Year in 2010 and '11. The Southeastern Conference's Freshman of the Year in 2008, Dunne led her team to the SEC Tournament title in 2010 and was named the SEC Tournament Most Valuable Player.

As a collegian, Dunne compiled a 113-23 career record, good for a .830 winning percentage, the highest in school history. She also holds the school records for career strikeouts (1,219), career shutouts (40) and career no-hitters (nine). In fact, she established an NCAA first with back-to-back no-hitters in the 2009 NCAA Super Regionals against Jacksonville State. Dunne finished her career with 137 starts in 168 appearances, including 92 complete games, and threw 869 innings in her career.

Dunne was the No. 1 overall selection in the 2011 National Pro Fastpitch League draft by the NPF Diamonds.

A 2007 graduate of Spruce Creek High School in Port Orange, Fla., Dunne earned her bachelor's degree in business management and administration from The University of Alabama in December of 2010. She received her master's degree from Alabama in Sports Management this past May.

Born April 25, 1989, Kelsi is the daughter of Will and Kim Dunne. Her brother, Justin, is a police officer in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Assistant Coach Tom Gray

Cal State Northridge '86

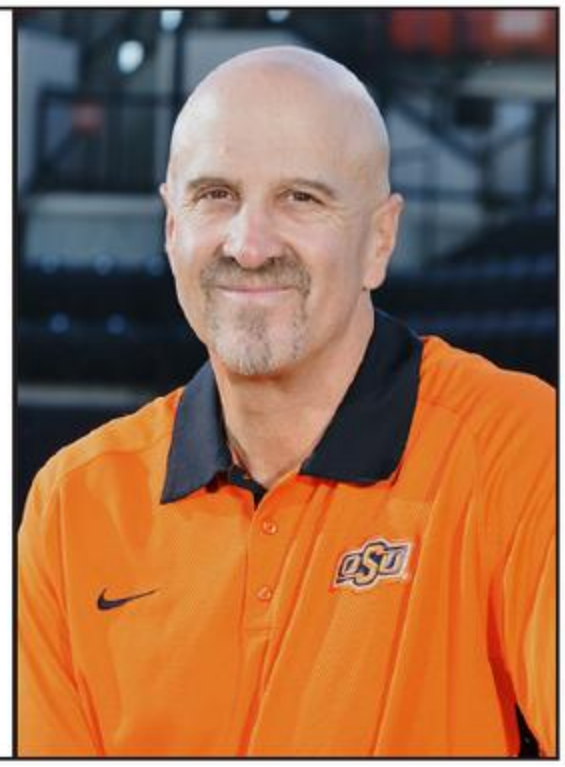
Fifth season at Oklahoma State

Five NCAA Tournament Appearances

2011 Knoxville Regional Champions

2011 Stillwater Super Regional Champions

2011 Women's College World Series Appearance



Tom Gray, a former co-head coach at the University of Illinois-Chicago, enters his fifth season as an assistant coach for Oklahoma State's Cowgirl softball team.

There's no denying that Gray's arrival in Stillwater has had a direct impact on Oklahoma State's success the past four seasons. Since he made the trek from Chicago to Stillwater, OSU has made three NCAA Tournament appearances, including an appearance in the 2011 Women's College World Series. It was OSU's first since 1998 and seventh overall.

Gray completed his seventh season as co-head coach for the UIC Flames with Sarah O'Malley-Fisher in 2008. The duo compiled a 216-208 overall record and won four Horizon League regular-season championships. The Flames had three 40-win seasons during their tenure, won the Horizon League Tournament title in 2004 and made NCAA Regional appearances in both 2002 and 2004.

Gray has coached four All-Americans and 10 All-Region honorees, as well as four conference Players of the Year, two league Pitchers of the Year, and 15 All-Horizon League first-team members during his nine years at UIC.

Gray joined the staff at UIC under then-head coach Mike McGovern in 2000. He helped lead the Flames to a 52-25 record that season as UIC won both the Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament titles. A year later, the Flames once again won the MCC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Regional for the fourth-consecutive season.

Prior to his move to Chicago, Gray was head coach at Crossroads High School in Santa Monica, Calif., where he led his team to nine league championships, winning every season from 1990-98. During that span, he was named the California Interscholastic Federation Coach of the Year three times, earning the honor in 1992, 1993 and 1996.

While at Crossroads, Gray was also an assistant coach for the Orange County Batbusters, an ASA 18-under gold team. With the Batbusters, he helped the team garner mention as one of the top programs in the nation, winning the Gold National Championship in 1997 and finishing second in 1998.

Accompanying his impressive coaching resumé, Gray has also established a sterling repuation as an educator. He taught at the high school level for 10 years and served as the assistant athletics director at Crossroads from 1992-93.

Gray received his bachelor of arts degree in physical education from Cal State-Northridge in 1986. He and his wife Tammy have five children: Dustin, Caitlin, Jessica, Drew and Abigail.

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Callye Williams

Mississippi State '06

Second season at Oklahoma State

Callye Williams enters her second season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Cowgirl softball team. She joined the Oklahoma State strength and conditioning staff in July of 2011.

Williams is primarily responsible for planning and implementing the annual training of the softball and soccer teams at OSU while supervising the annual training of the equestrian team.

Prior to her arrival in Stillwater, Williams served as the senior assistant strength and conditioning coach at James Madison in Virginia for three years, working with nearly all of the Olympic sports teams and overseeing the intern program.

A former softball player at Mississippi State, Williams holds certifications from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the United States Weightlifting Association.

Born March 24, 1984, Callye is the daughter Bill & MaryAnn Kilgore and Mac & Julie Williams. She has three brothers: Austin Kilgore, Patrick Williams and Sean Williams, and one sister, Jessica Kilgore. Callye enjoys traveling, cooking and reading in her free time.

Director of Softball Operations

Kaylan Lowrie

Oklahoma State '12

First season at Oklahoma State

Kaylan Lowrie enters her first season as the director of softball operations at Oklahoma State. Her off-season duties including alumni relations, writing and editing the monthly newsletter, supervising the On-Deck Club, and serving as camp director for both winter and summer camps.

During the season, Kaylan handles all travel arrangements, including itineraries, hotel reservations and bus scheduling. She also handles the day-to-day office operations and handles the finances of the program.

Kaylan graduated from Oklahoma State in May of 2012 with degrees in management with an option in sports management and in marketing, along with a minor in human resource management. She held an internship with the Oklahoma City Redhawks during the summer of 2011.

Kaylan was an OSU Spears School of Business Ambassador as well as an outstanding senior and member of the business honors organization. She was active in the sports management club at Oklahoma State, and worked in residential life as an undergraduate.

Born June 1, 1990, Kaylan is the daughter of Mike and Ronda Lowrie. She has a younger sister, Jamie. Kaylan graduated from Piedmont High School, and played softball for the Wildcats. She is active within Lifechurch.tv.

Women's College World Series Appearances

After three-consecutive appearances in the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) National tournament in 1980, '81 and 1982, Oklahoma State advanced to the first-ever NCAA Women's College World Series in 1982 with a sweep of Cal Poly-Pomona in the Stillwater Regional.

With the two national tournaments interlocking, it was a busy month of May for the Cowgirls. OSU advanced through the Southwest AIAW Tournament in Oklahoma City to qualify for the national tourament. A week later, the Cowgirls were hosting the Broncos in Stillwater.

Four days later, OSU headed down to Norman to compete in the AIAW Women's College World Series. The Cowgirls stomped through the first three games, shutting out Western Illinois (7-0), Utah (2-0) and California (3-0). A 2-1 victory over Michigan sent Oklahoma State into the finals against Texas A&M.

A two-day rain delay postponed the tournament, with the Aggies needing two wins over the Cowgirls since they were coming out of the loser's bracket. A 4-1 victory sent the series into an if-necessary game.

OSU led 3-2 going into the seventh inning of game two, but a double and an error set up the tying run. The Aggies scored two more in the eighth and held the Cowgirls scoreless for the 5-3 win.

The next morning, Oklahoma State left Stillwater at 7 am to make the trek to Omaha, Neb., for the NCAA WCWS, as the Cowgirls were scheduled to play UCLA at 7 pm that evening.

Oklahoma State scored first on Paula Smith's RBI single in the second inning. The Cowgirls held the Bruins scoreless until the bottom of the seventh when UCLA tied the game with the help of an OSU error. Oklahoma State threatened in the ninth and 10th innings, advancing a runner to third each time, but failed to push across the go-ahead run. UCLA centerfielder Gina Vecchione singled to lead off the Bruins' 13th. A double by designated player Sheila Cornell moved Vecchione to third, and Barbara Young singled to left for the 2-1 victory.

The loss gave OSU a much-needed day off on Friday, and the Cowgirls faced Fresno State in a elimination game on Saturday. After a scoreless game through 13 innings, the Bulldogs' Kim Muratore hit a run-scoring double for a 1-0 victory, ending the Cowgirls season. It was a tough road for OSU to follow, as UCLA won the first-ever WCWS and Fresno State finished second.

Oklahoma State fell one win shy of its second-straight 40-win season, ending the year with a 39-15 mark. However, it was the first of many appearances in the Women's College World Series, something those Cowgirls will never forget.

Seven years removed from its first ever NCAA Women's College World Series appearance in 1982, Oklahoma State advanced to its second world series in Sunnyvale, Calif., in the spring of 1989. Finishing the regular season with a 39-4 record and ranked No. 1 in the nation throughout most of the season, the Cowgirls captured the Big Eight title en route to sweeping Wichita State in the Stillwater Regional.

The Cowgirls fared better the second time around in the WCWS. In their first game against Toledo, the game remained scoreless until the bottom of the sixth inning when, with the bases loaded, OSU centerfielder Dee Brewer singled through the middle, scoring LeeAnne Ketcham and Dena Carter to take a 2-0 lead. Later in the inning, Deborah Mobius singled in Smith to give OSU a 3-0 advantage. Toledo took back a run in the top of the seventh, but it was too little, too late. The Cowgirls took game one 3-1, and starter Michele Smith improved her record to 25-2 on the season by holding Toledo to one run on just three hits and one walk.

The next night, the Cowgirls took on Arizona, a team they had defeated twice earlier in the season. The game was once again a pitching duel, this time taking 7-1/3 innings before a run was scored. With two outs in the top of the eighth inning, Ketcham and Smith scored on a bloop single by Mobius to take a 2-0 lead.

During the next at bat, Michelle Shean scored on a wild pitch by Ginnie Scheller. During the same plate appearance, Scheller threw another wild pitch on a 3-2 count that allowed Mobius to score to give the Cowgirls a 4-0 lead. That score would stand as the final. Smith recorded the win, going eight innings, giving up no runs on six hits, walking two and striking out seven.

Game three was the next afternoon against UCLA. As had been the pattern all season, pitching took over. The game remained scoreless until the bottom of the fifth inning when OSU took a 1-0 lead when Smith scored on a single to center by Shean. Unfortunately, that lead did not hold up. UCLA went on to score two runs in the top of the seventh to take a 2-1 lead, which would be the eventual final.

Game four would come only a few hours later on the same day and it would prove to be the Cowgirls final game of the 1989 Women's College World Series. They would fall to Fresno State, 7-0, ending the Cowgirl's title hopes.

The end of the season would leave OSU in third place nationally. However, the 1989 team still stands as one of the best teams in Cowgirl Softball history, finishing the season 46-6 and it wouldn't be long until the Cowgirls received another shot at the title.

A year removed from its best finish in school history, the Oklahoma State softball team returned to the NCAA Women's College World series for a second-straight year. The Cowgirls swept the Big Eight tournament to remain Big Eight champions, and they once again swept the Stillwater Regional to advance to the WCWS. This time, it would be a little closer to home, in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Game one put the Cowgirls head-to-head with a familiar opponent in Arizona, whom they defeated the previous year in the second game of the WCWS. This time, there was a similar outcome. The Cowgirls scored one run in the top of the second when Shawn Gilbert scored on a Shannon Kimberling single up the middle. The Cowgirls added a run on in the top of the third and again in the top of the seventh to defeat Arizona, 3-0. Starting pitcher Dena Carter went seven innings, allowing no runs on two hits while striking out one.

Game two came a day later against Florida State. As in typical Cowgirl fashion, defense and pitching continued to be OSU's specialty, leading to a 4-1 victory. The Cowgirls held FSU to one run on four hits through seven innings. Meanwhile, OSU scored three runs in the bottom of the fourth on a single by Carter and an error by the catcher.

Their fourth run came in the bottom of the sixth when Donna Forman doubled to left field, allowing Christi Smith to score from third. Starting pitcher Melanie Roche threw a complete game, allowing one run on four hits and striking out nine batters.

Game three would bring the Cowgirls up against the eventual champions UCLA the following afternoon. The Bruins scored two unearned runs in the bottom of the first inning when with the bases loaded and one out, LeeAnne Ketcham committed an error at shortstop, allowing two runs to scored.

Dena Carter started in the circle for OSU and despite not allowing an earned run on four hits, took the loss. The Cowgirls could only muster up one run of support. The lone run came in the top of the seventh when Roche, pinch running for Carter who had drawn a walk, advanced to third on a double by Linda Sodano. With one out, Kimberling singled down the right field line, scoring Roche, but pinch runner Dani Pfeiffer was thrown out at the plate attempting to score. Donna Forman lined out for the final out of the game and a 2-1 Cowgirl loss.

The next afternoon, it was another pitcher's duel as Carter and Fresno State's Marcie Green each threw a shutout through nine innings. A thunderstorm delayed the game, which was resumed the next afternoon. FSU's Carie Dever walked, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt, and advanced to third on a single. On the next at-bat, the Cowgirls attempted to prevent the run from scoring on a fielder's choice, but Kimberling dropped the ball, scoring the only run of the game.

While the Cowgirls didn't get the national championship that they desired, their second-straight third-place finish boosted the program and got them ready for more WCWS appearances and success in the future.

Three years removed from its last NCAA Women's College World Series appearance, the Oklahoma State women's softball team got another chance at a national title. On the way there, the Cowgirls captured their fifth-straight Big Eight Championship and swept Utah State in the Stillwater Regional for the right to go to Oklahoma City.

Game one saw the Cowgirls take on Florida State. OSU struck first in the bottom of the fourth when Linda Sodano scored on a wild pitch and Renee Cline singled up the middle to score Sandra Burkey. Toni Brown would later score on a Melanie Roche sacrifice fly to give the Cowgirls a 3-0 cushion. OSU added two more in the bottom of the fifth. Florida State scored two runs in the top of the seventh, but the Cowgirls eventually ended the game with a 5-2 win. Roche started in the circle and went five innings, allowing no runs on one hit while striking out seven.

Game two the next day against defending champions UCLA would prove to be a classic. The game when 12 scoreless innings, with only five hits scattered throughout the first seven innings. The winning run can in walk-off fashion in the bottom of the 13th inning when with one out, Shyla Sicks hit a bloop single to center which allowed Kendra Hanes to score the winning run. Roche threw all 13 innings, allowing no runs on five hits. She struck out four while walking three.

The following game proved to be another extra-innings battle against eventual champion Arizona. The game remained scoreless until the bottom of the ninth when Arizona scored with one out for a 1-0 walk-off victory. Roche, who pitched extra-inning games on consecutive nights, went 8-1/3, allowing just one run despite giving up 12 hits.

The Cowgirls final game of the 1993 season would come a few hours after the game-three loss. OSU would partake in a rematch against UCLA, however, the outcome was much different. The Cowgirls couldn't manage a run in seven innings and fell 5-0, ending their national title hopes. Roche pitched 4-1/3 innings, allowing five runs on six hits.

This trip to the WCWS had the Cowgirls play eight total extra innings in their four games and 16 total innings on their final day of competition and defeat the defending champions in a classic.

Shortstop April Austin and Roche were both named to the all-tournament team. The Cowgirls finished the season 50-9, one win shy of the school record.

Roche was a first-team All-American, while outfielder K.K. McCoy was named to the third team.

Women's College World Series Appearances

1994

A year removed from another trip to the Women's College World Series, the 1994 Oklahoma State softball team was poised for another trip to Oklahoma City. The Cowgirls returned eight starters and three All-Big Eight honorees from the squad that finished in fourth place the year before. The Cowgirls won their sixth-straight Big Eight title and swept the Stillwater Regional to earn another trip to OKC.

Game one of the WCWS didn't go the way the Cowgirls expected. The game remained scoreless through seven innings. In the eighth inning, Utah scored two, all it needed in a 2-0 win. Amy Day threw all eight innings, allowing two runs on five hits while striking out eight.

The Cowgirls rebounded in their second game, this time against Big Eight-rival Missouri. The Cowgirls scored one in the top of the first when Kim Ward scored on a single by Michelle Kelly. However, the Tigers responded in the bottom of the frame to tie the game, and in the bottom of the second, scored two to take a 3-1 lead.

OSU tied it up at 3-3 in the top of the fourth when Ward and Kelly scored on an error by the MU third baseman. The Cowgirls regained the lead in the top of the sixth when Kelly scored on a single by Tonia Brown. Later in the inning, Karie Langelier hit a two-run home run to give OSU a 6-3 cushion. The Cowgirls added one more in the top of the seventh and Missouri was never able to catch up, allowing OSU to take game two, 7-3. Ward threw seven innings, allowing three runs on five hits, striking out five.

Game three came later that night against Fresno State. The Cowgirls allowed pitching to take over in this game, scoring one run in the bottom of the fifth when Brown scored on a single by April Austin. They added another run in the bottom of the sixth on a fielder's choice. The Cowgirls won the game 2-0 and Day went seven innings, allowing no runs on four hits and striking out seven.

Game four against Cal State-Northridge would prove to be an instant classic for the Cowgirls. In the game, OSU struck first in the top of the fourth when Kelly singled in Amanda Emmons to take a 1-0 lead. Northridge responded in the bottom half, only for OSU to retake the lead in the top of the fifth when Langelier scored on a single by Austin. Northridge tied the game at 2-2 in the bottom of the sixth, and nine extra innings were needed to decide the outcome.

The Cowgirls scored one run in the top of the 15th inning when Koni Couts scored on a sacrifice fly by Austin. The 3-2 score would hold up, giving the Cowgirls the victory. Ward went six innings, allowing two runs on five hits and striking out seven. In relief, Day went nine innings, allowing no runs on four hits and striking out five. The 15-inning affair is the longest game the Cowgirls have ever played in the WCWS.

A rematch against Northridge in the semifinals didn't have the same outcome as OSU fell to the Matadors 4-2, ending its WCWS hopes.

Austin, Day and Ward were all named to the all-tournament team, with Ward and Day earning All-America honors.

After a four-year hiatus from its last Women's College World Series, the Oklahoma State softball team made their return to Oklahoma City in 1998. After tying for third place at the Big 12 Tournament, the Cowgirls wondered where they'd be sent for the NCAAs.

After the first seven regionals were announced, with OSU not mentioned once, the final regional came on the board. Stanford, the top seed, would play Missouri State while third-seeded Florida State would play the Cowgirls ... in Stillwater!

Oklahoma State defeated the Seminoles 4-0, then defeated the MSU Bears, 4-0 as well. The Cowgirls defeated Stanford 4-0 in what appeared to be destiny and went on to their sixth WCWS appearance.

As winners of the No. 8 regional, Oklahoma State was set up to face top-ranked Arizona in the first round. The game proved to be a pitching duel between OSU's Jenn Markert and the Wildcats' Nancy Evans. In the end, the Wildcats won 1-0 on a solo home run by Leticia Piñeda.

With a day off to regroup, game two involved a match-up with the UMass Minutewomen. The Cowgirls were going to face UMass's top pitcher, Danielle Henderson, who had the nation's best ERA and only allowed one home run all season. However, OSU had other plans. Liz Silva, Kristi Bolle and Shannon Sullivan would all hit homers and propel the Cowgirls to a 6-0 victory. It set a record for most home runs by a team in a single game at the WCWS.

Game three saw a rematch between OSU and Michigan from earlier in the season when the Wolverines defeated the Cowgirls in the finals of the NFCA Leadoff Classic. Luckily, this game had a different outcome. The Cowgirls scored two first-inning runs without a hit. Michigan All-American Sara Griffin walked two, and the Wolverines committed two errors, the latter a boot by second baseman Melissa Taylor on Jaime Foutch's hard bouncer, allowing two runs to score. The Cowgirls eventually won 3-1, and in the process earned their fourth win over a ranked opponent in six games.

Next up was a rematch with Arizona. The outcome was unfortunately the same for Oklahoma State as the Wildcats defeated the Cowgirls 5-0. Markert gave up two two-run homers, and with Evans pitching again for the Wildcats, Arizona shut down the Cowgirls on two hits.

Oklahoma State finished fourth in the WCWS and was ranked fourth in the final NFCA poll. Third baseman Kristi Bölle received all-tournament team accolades, and Jaime Foutch was named a first-team All-American.

It didn't take head coach Rich Wieligman long to return the Cowgirls to national prominence. Oklahoma State had not been to the Women's College World Series in 13 years, and although the 2011 squad had played well throughout the season, a six-game losing streak to wrap up the regular-season schedule.

After being swept by Missouri, Texas A&M and Nebraska to wrap up Big 12 play, the Cowgirls limped into the NCAA Tournament, serving as the No. 3 seed in the Knoxville Regional. OSU faced No. 2 seed Georgia Tech in the first game, and a walk-off single by Julie Ward scored Kelsey Anchors from second to give the Cowgirls a 2-1 victory over the 19th-ranked Yellow Jackets.

In a winner's bracket game against host and No. 5 Tennessee, Alysia Hamilton went 3-for-3 with a single, a double and a home run, and Kat Espinosa continued to pitch well as the Cowgirls defeated the Lady Volunteers 6-1. Tennessee went on to defeat Georgia Tech and set up a rematch in the regional finals, with the Volunteers needing two wins over Oklahoma State.

In the regional finals, the Cowgirls took a 3-0 lead in the bottom of the third, but Tennessee bounced back, scoring one run in the top of the fourth and three in the fifth.

In the bottom of the sixth, Tarah Ettinger hit a bases-loaded double, scoring two and giving OSU a 6-4 lead. In the top half of the seventh, UT had runners on first and second with no outs. A ground-out moved both runners up, and a sacrifice fly made the score 6-5 OSU. Tennessee's Lauren Gibson hit a drive to left field, with a runner on second, but Tamara Brown charged the ball and nabbed it cleanly, throwing a strike to Ashley Boyd at home and getting the final out of the game.

Thanks to an upset by the Houston Cougars over the Texas Longhorns, the Cowgirls received the Super Regional bid to host UH. Oklahoma State took the first game, 3-0, but fell to the upstart Cougar, 1-0, in game two, setting up an if-necessary contest.

OSU began the deciding game with a three-run first inning, but Houston responded in the bottom of the frame with two runs of its own. The Cougars jumped in front in the third with a two-run home run, giving UH a 4-3 lead.

In the fifth, a walk, a single by Hamilton, and another walk loaded the bases for Chelsea Garcia, who tied the game with an RBI ground-out. Hamilton then scored from third on a wild pitch, putting OSU back on top 5-4.

Brown provided what would prove to be the winning run with a double to put OSU ahead 6-4. The Cougars hit a pinch-hit solo home run to lead off the bottom of the seventh, but the infield recorded two outs and Espinosa struck out the final batter, sending the Cowgirls to Oklahoma City.

OSU faced Big 12-rival Baylor, whom the Cowgirls swept earlier in the season in Waco, in the first game of the WCWS. After a scoreless seven innings by both pitchers, BU's Kelsi Kettler hit a solo home run in the bottom of the eighth for the heartbreaking 1-0 loss in front of 7,280 fans, a Session 1 attendance record.

The Cowgirls faced California in an elimination game, and despite a hard-fought battle, OSU eventually fell to the Bears, 6-2, and ended the season at 42-20. However, it was a return to a pinnacle Oklahoma State had regularly frequented, and hopes to do again soon.

Cowgirl All-Americans

Jaime Foutch

Three-Time All-American

3rd team All-American in 1996 (Outfielder)
3rd team All-American in 1997 (1st Base)
1st team All-American in 1998 (At-large 1st Base)

Jaime Foutch is the only Cowgirl to be named a three-time All-American. She was a third-team selection as an outfielder in 1996 and a third-teamer at first base in 1997. Jaime was a first-team selection as an at-large first baseman in 1998. She was a member of the 1998 Women's College World Series team that finished fourth.

Foutch, a native of Edmond, Okla., is the only Cowgirl to be named Big 12 Freshman of the Year. In each of her four years in Stillwater, she earned first-team all-Big 12 and first-team all-Region honors. In 1997, she made the Big 12 Conference all-tournament team. Throughout her career, she was selected as Big 12 Player of the Week four times.

Foutch's name appears on almost every OSU record list. In each of her four seasons, her batting average ranks in the all-time top 10. She holds the record for the most hits in a game (six against Nebraska in 1997) and is tied for most RBIs in a game (six against Marshall in 1997). During her sophomore year, Foutch set the record for the most doubles hit in a season with 22 (also a Big 12 record) and tallied the most bases in a season with 133.

Jaime Foutch's name is at the top of most career offensive categories. She holds the top spot in doubles (56), slugging percentage (.612), hits (278), home runs (27), RBIs (163), total bases (425) and games played (224). She also ranks second with her .401 career batting average.

Melanie Roche

Two-Time All-American

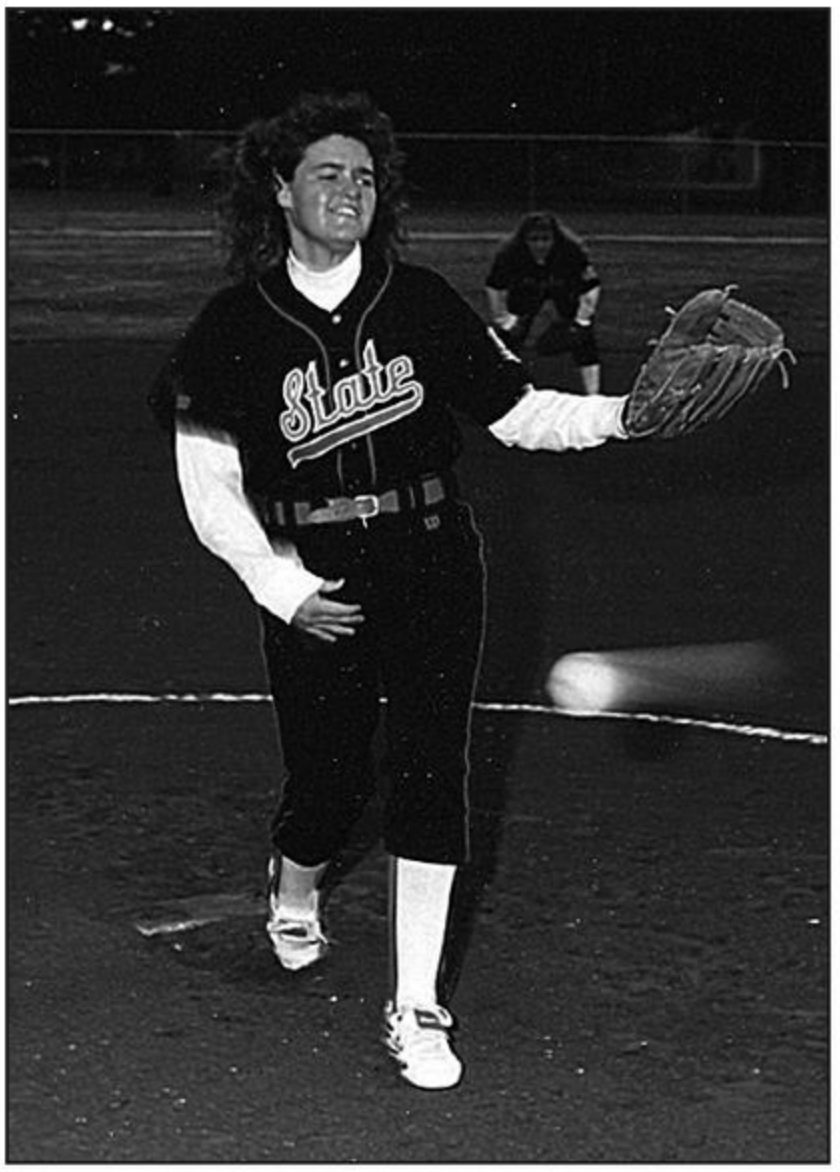
1st team All-American in 1992 (Pitcher)
1st team All-American in 1993 (Pitcher)

Melanie Roche was named first-team All-American twice in her career as a Cowgirl in 1992 and 1993. She was also a member of two Women's College World Series teams, the 1990 team which finished third and the 1993 squad which finished fourth. Roche made the WCWS all-tournament team in 1993.

During her four years in Stillwater, Roche received several awards. She was first-team All-Big Eight three times and Academic All-Big Eight in 1991. In 1992, the Australian native was selected to the Big Eight conference all-tournament team and, in 1993, she was named to the all-Region team.

Roche holds several Cowgirl pitching records, including career shutouts (47), consecutive scoreless innings pitched (60.2), season victories (32) and the fewest walks per game (1.12). She once threw all 24 innings of a single game against Kansas. She threw four no-hitters, including a perfect game against Kent State in 1991.

After her career as a Cowgirl, Roche went on to play on the Australian National Team. She was also on four Australian Olympic teams, appearing in the 1996 Atlanta games where she won a bronze medal, the 2000 Sydney games where she won a bronze medal, the 2004 Athens games where she won a silver medal, and the 2008 Beijing games where she won a bronze medal.



Michele Smith

Two-Time All-American

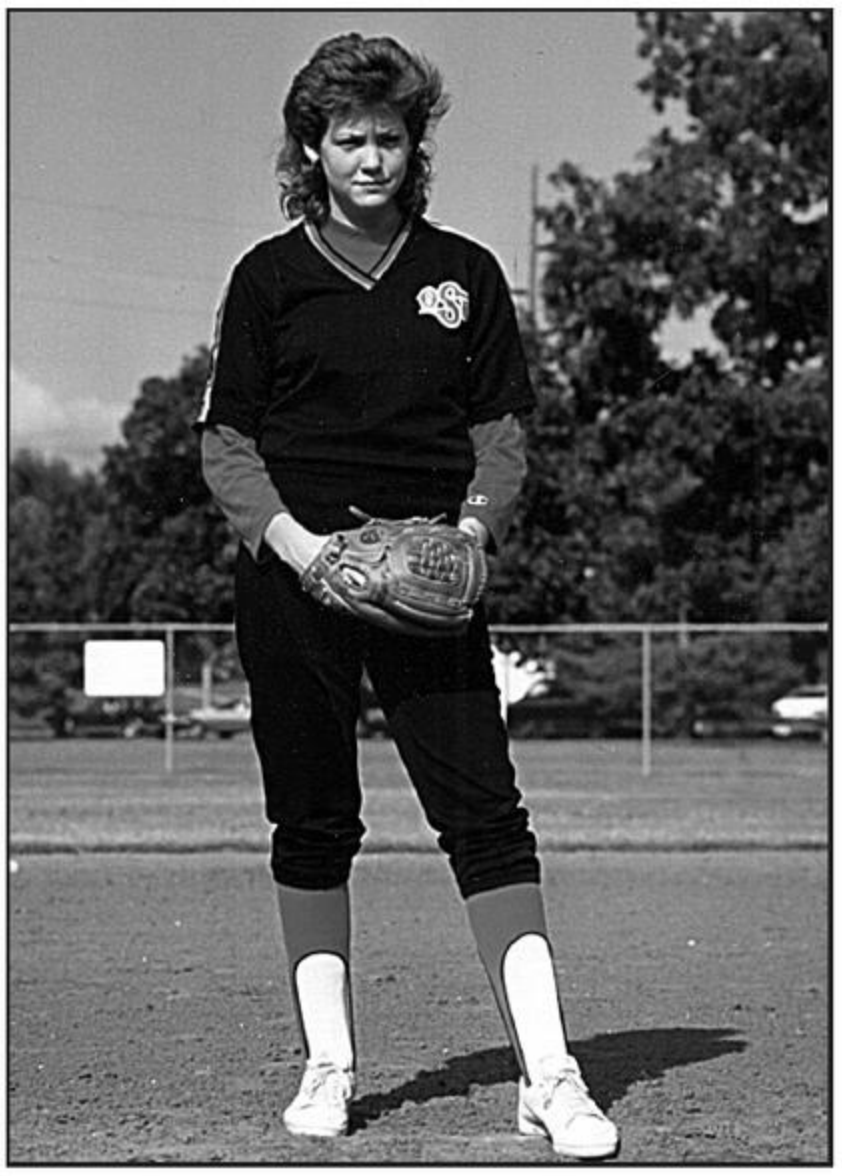
1st team All-American in 1988 (Utility)
1st team All-American in 1989 (Pitcher)

Michele Smith was named first-team All-American in both 1988 and 1989. During her four-year Cowgirl career, Smith as selected to the All-Big Eight team three times, the all-Region team twice and the Big Eight all-tournament team three times (including 1989 when she was MVP of the tournament). She was also a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that tied for third place and was named to the all-WCWS team.

As a pitcher and designated player, Smith has left her name among the best in Cowgirl softball history. She has thrown the most no-hitters in school history with nine, two of which were perfect games.

Smith ranks in the top 10 in 16 offensive and pitching season records including two seasons with 26 victories which ties for the third-most in a season. She is also in the top 10 for 16 offensive and pitching career records. She owns the school record for career victories with 82, is tied for second in career triples with 10, and is second in shutouts with 46.

After her record-setting career as a Cowgirl, Smith went on to play for Team USA and has a professional playing career in Japan. She was on the U.S. Olympic team at the 1996 Atlanta Games and the 2000 Sydney Games where she won a gold medal at both.



Shari Johnson

Two-Time All-American

2nd team All-American in 1988 (Shortstop)
1st team All-American in 1989 (Shortstop)

Shari Johnson was a two-time All-American, garnering first-team honors in 1989 and being named to the second team in 1988. The native of Moore, Okla., was an All-Big Eight selection twice, was named all-region in 1988 and was a member of the Big Eight all-tournament team in 1988 as well. She was also a member of the 1989 Cowgirl team that went to the Women's College World Series and tied for third place.

In 1988, Johnson had a 14-game hitting streak that is tied for second-longest in school history. Her batting average that season was .404 and is fourth best for a season in school history. She is also in the top 10 for hits in a season (69) and on-base percentage (.457).

The shortstop's career statistics place her in the top five in several categories. She is fourth with 187 hits and is fourth with 96 runs scored. Her 619 at-bats place her fifth all-time.

Cowgirl All-Americans

Kim Ward

Two-Time All-American

1st team All-American in 1994 (Utility)
2nd team All-American in 1995 (At-Large Utility)

Kim Ward was named first-team All-American in 1994 and was a second-team All-American selection in 1995. In both of her years as a Cowgirl, she was named to the All-Big Eight team and the all-Midwest Region team.

Ward was an integral part of the 1994 Women's College World Series team that took third place. She was selected to be on the WCWS all-tournament team.

During her career in Stillwater, Ward threw five career no-hitters. She is second among all Cowgirls for wins in a season with 27 and is fourth for appearances in a season with 42.

The California native is in the top five among Oklahoma State players in several career categories. She is second for career slugging percentage (.557) and third in career saves (five). She is fourth all-time for career on-base percentage with .428 and is also fourth for the most strikeouts per seven-inning game at 7.81 strikeouts per game.

Lauren Bay

1st team All-American in 2003 (At-large Pitcher)

Lauren Bay was a first-team All-America selection in 2003 and earned several accolades during her four years as a Cowgirl. She was named all-Big 12 all four years and Academic all-Big 12 and all-Midwest Region in 2001, 2002 and 2003. Bay is the only Cowgirl to be honored as the Big 12 Player of the Year (2003) and she was also selected as the pitcher for the Big 12's 10th Anniversary Team.

During her career in Stillwater, Lauren left her mark in the record books and holds the top spot for several categories. The native of Canada has the most strikeouts per seven-inning game in a season (12.71) as well as a career (9.44). She holds the top two spots for most strikeouts in a season with 451 in 2003 and 314 in 2002. Bay holds the record for career strikeouts with 1,151.

Lauren threw three no-hitters in her career, including two perfect games against Tulsa and South Florida in 2002. She also has the most career saves among OSU players with eight.

After her years at Oklahoma State, Bay went on to play for the Canadian National Team, which included an appearance on the roster for the 2004 Athens Olympic Games where Canada placed fifth. She was named co-Pitcher of the Year with teammate Jennie Finch in the NPF league playing for the Chicago Bandits.

Dee Brewer

1st team All-American in 1988 (Outfielder)

Dee Brewer was named a first-team All-American as a freshman in 1988. During her Oklahoma State career, she was selected twice to the All-Big Eight team, once to the all-region team and once to the Big Eight all-tournament team. Brewer was also a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that tied for third place.

As on outfielder for the Cowgirls, Brewer stood out on the offensive end. In 1989, she had four hits against Sam Houston State, which is tied for the second-most hits in a game. She is also in the top 10 for several season records including batting average (ninth with a .390 average), hits (ninth with 67), runs scored (seventh with 36), and total bases (seventh with 100).

Dee Brewer (top center) played an integral part in OSU being ranked No. 1 nationally during both the 1988 and '89 seasons.

Brewer is also listed among the career offensive record numbers, despite playing just two seasons. She is sixth with her .416 on-base percentage. Her .355 career batting average ranks fourth in school history.

Jan Drummond

1st team All-American in 1980 (Outfielder)

In 1980, Jan Drummond was the first Cowgirl to be named a first-team All-American. The centerfielder from Stillwater was a four-year member of the Cowgirl softball team at Oklahoma State.

During the 1980 season, Drummond compiled a .324 batting average, second-best on the team. She scored a team-high 30 runs and finished the year with two home runs and eight runs batted in.

Also in 1980, her senior season, the Cowgirls advanced to the AIAW National Tournament for the first time in school history, compiling a 2-2 record at the tournament held in Norman. The Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women would eventually give way to the NCAA and the Women's College World Series.

Jan Drummond (fourth from the left on the front row) is the first Cowgirl in school history to garner All-America honors. Here, she poses with the 1980 Cowgirl softball team.

Drummond played a major role in the transition of women's athletics moving from the Colvin Center to the OSU athletics department. She was a member of the women's track and field hockey team as well.

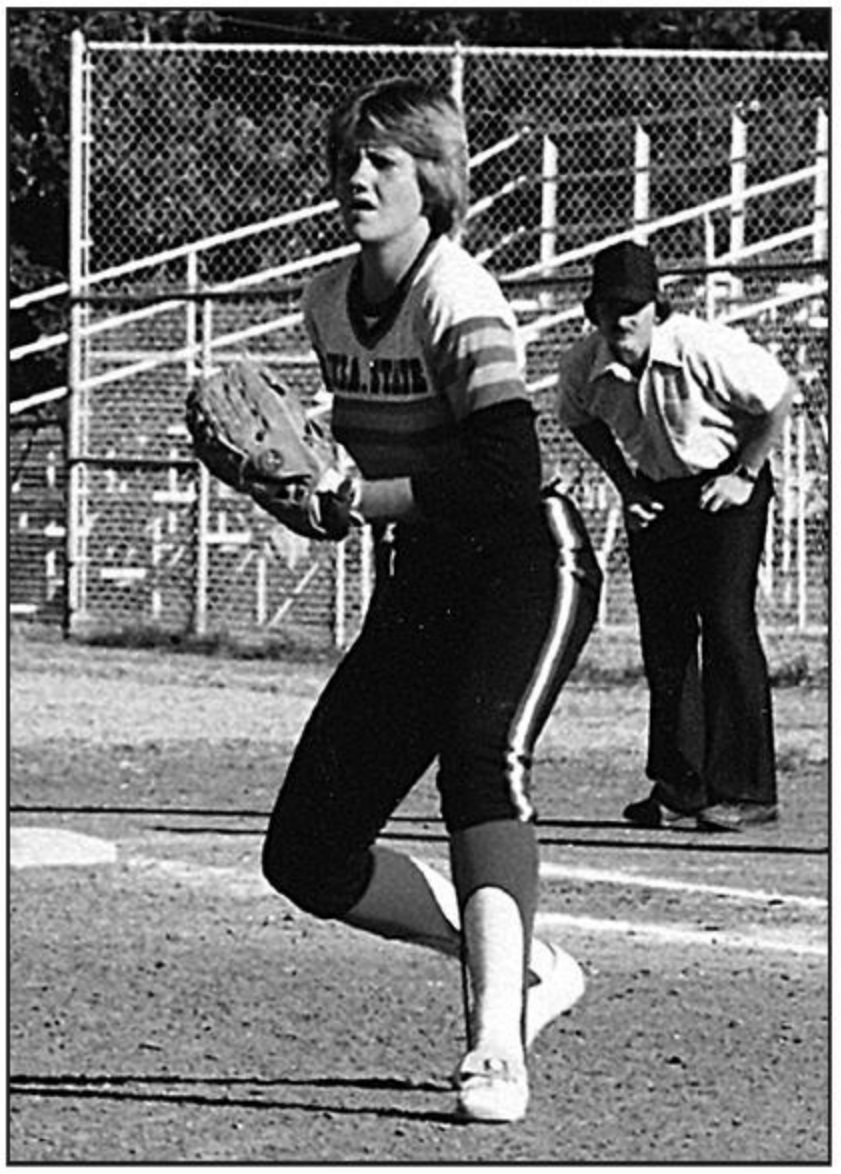
Pam Harper

1st team All-American in 1982 (1st Base)

Pam Harper was selected as a first-team All-American in 1982. The first baseman made the all-Big Eight team and Big Eight all-tournament team in both 1979 and 1981. She was also a part of the Cowgirls' first Women's College World Series team in 1982 that finished seventh.

Harper, a Tulsa native, ranks in the top-20 in several record lists for a season, including at-bats (11th place with 180), runs scored (12th place with 34), and total bases (13th place with 87). She also hit eight triples in 1980 tying the school record for most in a season.

Many of Harper's statistics still keep her in the top of OSU's career record section. She is tied for second in triples with 10 and is tied for 10th in doubles with 22. She's also in the top 10 for runs scored (sixth with 92), batting average (ninth with a .320 average), hits (sixth with 165), total bases (sixth with 243) and runs batted in (ninth with 72).



Lisa Harvey

1st team All-American in 1989 (Catcher)

Lisa Harvey was a first-team All-America selection in 1989. The catcher from Bartlesville, Okla., was a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that finished in a tie for third place. She was selected to the all-Big Eight team in 1988 and 1989 as well as being named to the Big Eight all-tournament team and the all-region team in 1989. Harvey was also an Academic All-American in 1988.

Harvey recorded the second-most putouts in a game with 18 against Louisiana Tech in 1989. Her fielding percentage in 1988 (.996) and 1989 (.994) rank her third and fifth, respectively in the school record books for a season. In 1987, she was hit by a pitch 13 times, the second-most in a single season.

Harvey holds two top-10 spots in career record categories. She is second all-time for her .992 fielding percentage. She was third for all-time hit by pitches with 15.

Media Information

Interview Requests - Requests for interviews should be made through Mike Noteware at least 24 hours in advance. It is suggested that the interviewer leave his/her name and number and the athlete will return the call when convenient for both parties. The best time to meet with a player for a one-on-one interview is before practice at approximately 2 pm at the facility. No player interviews will be granted during practice. The best time to speak with head coach Rich Wieligman is before practice, around 2 pm, in his office.

Media Credentials - Please notify the OSU Athletic Media Relations department via e-mail at ...

mike.noteware@okstate.edu

if you are planning to attend a game. Mike Noteware will be available to help you with any additional information you need. Media accommodations will be made on a priority basis.

Postgame Media Procedures - OSU coaches and players will meet with the media after the game has ended. After a team meeting, coaches and players will be available outside the entrance to the softball office.

Game Day Media Services - wireless internet access will be available in the Cowgirl Stadium Press Box during the games. Statistics and pregame notes will be available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office prior to the game.
